

Free First Time Homebuyer Training

Family Services Center provides free training on buying your first home, whether you're ready to buy now or later. Learn how to obtain an affordable mortgage, the best way to shop for a home, and about financial assistance that may be available to you. We also provide information on how to improve your credit score to qualify for the lowest cost mortgage and how to avoid foreclosure. This course is required for several financial assistance programs. Individual counseling sessions are also available at no charge.

Each training course consists of two parts (4-hours each) that are repeated each month. You only need to attend two sessions - Part I and Part II.
